

Science and Technology of the High Consultative Council of the Engineering Institute of Spain

Bilateral Meetings

- Thursday 11.00 - 12:30
- Thursday 15:00 - 17:00

Description

Juan Mulet Meliá has a PhD in Engineering and a Master in Business Administration (MBA).

He has been Director of Telefónica's Research and Study Centre, Assistant General Manager of Telefónica Investigación y Desarrollo S.A., Managing Director and CEO of Amper Programas de Electrónica y Comunicaciones S.A. and Managing Director of Cotec.

He has worked as an Assistant Professor, a Professor and a Senior Lecturer at the Universidad Politécnica de Madrid, and as an Assistant Professor at the Universidad Carlos III of Madrid.

He has been a member of the Industrial Research & Development Advisory Committee (IRDAC) and the European Research Advisory Board (EURAB) of the European Union, a Board Member of the Spanish Science and Technology Foundation (FECYT), a member of the Advisory Board of Telefónica I+D and a member of the Social Council of Farmandustria

He has been a member of the Board of Directors of Axon Capital SGCR, where he was President, and of Intelsa, Comet, AT&T Microelectrónica de España and Amper Programas.

He is currently a member of the Advisory Board for Science and Technology of the High Consultative Council of the Engineering Institute of Spain, a scholar at the European Academy of Sciences and Arts, and a trustee of IMDEANetworks and España Digital.

Organization Type

Other

Country

Spain

Areas of Activities

ICT

Tourism

Cultural heritage

Innovation