Description

CIVINET CY-EL is a Network of more than 120 municipalities and regions in Greece and Cyprus dedicated to promoting sustainable mobility (SM). Through communication, engagement and capacity-building activities, it ensures the adoption of the EC strategy for SM at the local level, while it advocates for its diverse members at the National and the EU level. Focusing on touristic insular and coastal areas of low density, it has developed tools for addressing the impacts of seasonality aiming to promote sustainable tourism. From engaging citizens till reaching out to policy-makers, in the framework of INCIRCLE, CIVINET will deploy the most effective communication strategies in order to get the message across and pioneer change in the MED area.
